said is also wanted in connection with the slaying of a drug store executive at Kankakee, Ill., December 22, 1934, and Eugene Nelson, 23, formerly of Decatur, Ill.

Von Sar was 50 years of age and a native of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. He had lived in Benton Harbor 21 years.

A veteran law enforcement officer, Von Sar was a valued member of the local police force for six years, after which he became a deputy sheriff and later chief deputy. He served as deputy under Sheriffs Harry Hogue and George C. Bridgman and was chief deputy under Sheriff Fred C. Franz in 1925 and 1926. He took a leading part during the Franz regime in the capture of the Millburg bank bandits.

While chief deputy Von Sar started the Berrien county bureau of criminal identification. This work was his hobby and he became a recognized authority on fingerprinting and other means of identification.

Von Sar was known as a fearless officer, always ready for the most difficult and dangerous assignments. Ex-sheriff Franz, informed of his former chief deputy's death this morning, was shocked and grieved. "I am terribly sorry," Ex-Sheriff Franz said. "Al was a courageous man and a fearless officer who always put duty foremost. I never knew a man who was less afraid of gunfire."

In addition to his widow and two daughters here, Von Sar is survived by two sisters in Oakland, Calif.

The slain officer went to Bloomington from Muskegon, where he was employed after leaving the sheriff's office here. His ability was immediately recognized, and he was placed in charge of the identification bureau at Bloomington.
